MOTION AND PROCEDURAL RULINGS

2013-1668. State ex rel. Cleveland Right to Life, Inc. v. State of Ohio Controlling Bd.

In Mandamus and Prohibition. This cause originated in this court on the filing of a complaint for a writ of mandamus and prohibition. Upon consideration of relators' motion to expedite consideration, it is ordered by the court that the motion is granted.

It is further ordered by the court, sua sponte, that an alternative writ in mandamus and prohibition is granted and the following expedited briefing schedule is set for presentation of evidence and filing of briefs pursuant to S.Ct.Prac.R. 12.05:

Respondents shall file an answer to the complaint within five days after the date of this entry; relators' evidence and brief are due no later than ten days after the filing of respondents' answer; respondents' evidence and brief are due no later than ten days after the filing of relators' brief; and relators' reply brief is due no later than seven days after the filing of respondents' brief.

It is further ordered that S.Ct.Prac.R. 12.05 notwithstanding, the issuance of this alternative writ of prohibition does not stay proceedings in the action sought to be prohibited.

No requests or stipulations for extensions of time shall be permitted and the clerk shall refuse to file a request or stipulation for extension of time. All documents filed in this case shall be served on the date of filing by personal service, facsimile transmission, or e-mail.
